

MANAGER, TRADES & APPRENTICESHIP

Are you a Red Seal Journey person or do you have a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, Commerce or Education? Are you experienced in the area of industrial trades and apprenticeship and Occupational Health and Safety? Do you want to be a part of the College system? If so, this may be the opportunity for you!

Suncrest College is currently accepting applications for a Manager, Trades & Apprenticeship to join our team. This position will be based out of our Melfort campus location and will be commencing as soon as possible.

THE OPPORTUNITY:

Reporting to the Vice President, Academics & Learner Engagement and as part of the Leadership Team, the Manager, Trades & Apprenticeship is responsible for operational planning, implementation, and evaluation of post-secondary programs. This includes the management of budgets and targets, and supervision of staff. Working as part of a collaborative team, the incumbent provides leadership in fostering a climate that is focused on meeting the needs of learners, staff, employers, and communities.

WHAT YOU'LL BRING:

- Red Seal Journey person, or a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, Commerce, or Education.
- Three years' experience in the area of industrial trades and apprenticeship and Occupational Health and Safety. This knowledge of the Saskatchewan Apprenticeship system and experience will demonstrate the skills required to negotiate with partners, deal with sensitive situations, and supervise within the Trades, Industrial and Ag program areas.
- Experience in a public sector and / or within post-secondary environment.
- Demonstrated experience in working with people from equity groups in a cross-cultural setting.
- An equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- Competitive compensation.
- Comprehensive benefits and pension package.
- Professional development opportunities.
- Professional, respectful and flexible work environment.
