

Instructor, Indigenous Studies & Culture and Diversity

Suncrest College is currently accepting applications for an Indigenous Studies & Culture and Diversity Instructor for a wide variety of our post-secondary programs. This is a term position starting as soon as possible until April 30, 2027 (120 total contract hours), at our Yorkton campus. This position is primarily responsible for the face-to-face teaching of INDG 100 (Introduction to Indigenous Studies) and CLTR 200 (Culture and Diversity). We offer some flexibility in our programming schedules and are committed to working with the right candidate to develop an arrangement that meets both their needs and those of the program.

Requirements:

- The minimum educational qualification for this position is a Bachelor's degree with a major in Indigenous Studies.
- The minimum amount of practical, related experience required to perform the duties of this position is two years (within the last five years) of recent/relevant business/industry experience or post-secondary teaching experience
- Must meet Saskatchewan Polytechnic qualifications and receive necessary approval.
- Demonstrated experience working in a cross-cultural environment.
- Valid Saskatchewan Driver's license is required
- Satisfactory Criminal Record Check and Vulnerable Sector Check are required

About Suncrest College:

Suncrest College has 11 campus locations, and our employees enjoy working in a respectful and professional environment. Our strong values of being future forward, responsive stewards and empowering allies, have formed a positive culture at Suncrest College. Our employees are highly engaged and student focused, knowing their work has a strong and positive impact on students, communities, partners, and the economy.

Closing Date: This position will remain open until it is filled.

Please send your application electronically, quoting competition #SC-314-2627 to:
humanresources@suncrestcollege.ca